Obituary

Jeanette Turner was born in New York City on December 7, 1945 to John and Novella Turner. She departed this life in New York City on Thursday, July 14, 2022 at the age of 76 years old.

Jeanette attended Washington Irving High School, where she studied fashion, and photography. Graduating with the determination to change the world or at least make it a place where women not only persevered but had more than just a chance, through opportunity and exposure, to find success. Her fashion career path led to her becoming a merchandise buyer for B. Altman and Company department store.

As the fourth oldest of 10 children, Jeanette took her role as the oldest very seriously. Even as a teen she took on the mothering role with her siblings and later with their children. Although, Jeanette never married nor did she have any children, she willingly assisted in raising her extended family and was more than happy to be the central figure--the ROCK for her family. Under her loving and protective wing, she shared her passionate hobbies of photography and travel, and expressed the love of her fashion work with all. Always putting others first, she was the "ROCK" for her family.

Jeanette loved all kinds of music. Her favorite music genre was "ole school soul". Some of the lyrics expressed a passion for love, acceptance of all people with kindness, honesty and strength that's how she lived her life just so.

Anyone that knew Jeanette knew that she had a strong belief in GOD, she was strict, and made sure that you stayed true to your word. This was her love language.

She leaves behind five siblings: Abbey, Gerald (Jerry), Farrell, Cheryl and Karen. As well as a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, grand-nieces, nephews, and beloved friends.

Psalms 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.
Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.
He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust:
his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness;
nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand;
but it shall not come nigh thee.
Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.
Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge,
even the most High, thy habitation;
There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.
Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him:
I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.
With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
