Obituary

Keila Enid Echevarria age 39, born November 21,1982 in Yauco P.R. Passed peacefully September 2nd, 2022.

She was one out of ten children to Alexis Garcia, daughter to Julio Echevarria, stepdaughter to Juan Davila. A beautiful loving mother to her son Xavier.

Keila soul was magical. Her aura was so bright and beautiful. Keila smile and laugh was infectious.she was all about her only son and her family that she would do anything for. She didn't care what anyone had to say or think of her she was remaining herself. Keila was the strongest sister, daughter, and friend. She wouldn't let you fall even is she was down shell always pick u up. Keila was the glue who kept everyone together. Our beautiful butterfly.

Music was her life, butterflies was her joy. She loved mickey mouse and watching her horror and disney movies.

She is remember by her parents Alexis Garcia, Julio Juan. Her son Xavier, her siblings Wilson, Luis, Hector, Jose, Jessica, Kenia, Kimberly. And now united with her brother Julio and her sister Angelica. She has been called home.

Keila you will always be remembered as our beautiful butterfly. So butterfly fly high. As you would always say we will be alright.

Thank you, There is not enough words to express for our appreciation and love.

With love, the family
