Obituary

Trucilla Arlene “Rosie” Davenport Smith was born September 11, 1962, in Brooklyn, NY to Cecilia Robinson (preceded in death) and Herbert Davenport.

Rosie attended elementary school in the Newark school system and graduated from Columbia High School in South Orange, NJ.

Rosie met the love of her life Brian Smith in 1992 and they married May 29, 2002. They both shared a love for family and decided to start their own. Rosie was blessed with a large and loving family, having 5 children Julius Davenport (preceded in death), Sade Davenport -Washburn (Key Washburn), Hope Davenport-Goodson (Lenny Goodson), Brianna Davenport-Smith and Destiny Davenport-Smith who she spoiled as much as she could.

Rosie became a grandmother to 5 grandchildren Nakiyah Davenport, Hailey Bennett, Damonta Goodson, Montavious Goodson and Harmoni Goodson and was absolutely thrilled about her family growing even bigger.

Rosie enjoyed crocheting and spending time with her husband, children and grandchildren listening to music and playing backgammon.

Rosie is survived by her Husband Brian Smith & 4 daughters, Step-Father, Albert Gooden, Brothers Joseph Davenport (Renee’ Davenport), Maurice Guy and Majid Catlett (Shonta Watson). Sister Tameka Simmons (Malik Harper), Best friend of 30 years Stacey Yarborough, God son Brandon Flowers and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

An Angel

An angel lived among us,
A gift from God above.
She showered us with kindness
And shared with us her love.
She cherished every moment
With the man who was her life;
Walking hand in hand together,
Facing life with all it's strife.
She loved her children dearly,
Each one a different way
Nestled close within her heart
Though, now, she's far away
She's gone to live with Jesus,
But, she's here with us, today,
Smiling down on every one of us,
And telling us she's O.K.
