Obituary

Pamela aka (Neicy) Artis was born on December 14, 1966 in Seaboard, NC to the late Rudolph Artis and Melinda Artis. After moving from North Carolina at a young age, Neicy moved to Newark, NJ and was educated in the Newark Public School system. She ultimately attended Arts High School. She was the oldest child of five. She was a loving, affectionate, and kindhearted person who loved her family and friends dearly. Shortly after graduation, Neicy moved to Asbury Park, NJ where she worked, attended church, and made her life. She worked for Personal Touch home health services for many years. She enjoyed her life where she met Paul Costa Sr. and was gifted with her son Paul(PJ.) Costa, her pride and joy. One of her proudest moment was seeing her son graduate from High School. Her two favorite hobbies were eating and listening to R & B music and her favorite artist was Joe.

Throughout her life, Neicy was oftentimes very ill. She pulled through many battles with chronic asthma that kept her hospitalized. Although always in pain, she would ask how her family and friends were doing. She had a strong belief in God and in the later years, had stronger faith until her death on September 18th.

Neicy leaves her mother, Melinda Artis. Her son, Paul Costa(P.J.), whom she loved and adored. Three brothers, Rudolph Artis Jr., Tyrone Artis(Jory Artis), Lamont Artis and one sister, Tysheria Artis. She had many nephews, cousins, friends, and loved them all, but had a special relationship with Shawn Walker. She will be missed.
