

DAD

Yesterday I felt okay, I smiled when I thought of you. I remember happy times and the funny things you do. But today I feel very sad I think of you and cry.

I'm missing you so very much and asking God why? I don't know what will happen when I face another day what will tomorrow bring will I cry or be okay?

This roller coaster of emotions is the worse ride of my life. Nothing can prepare you for the never ending strife. I may not handle my emotions the way that I should do.

But I still thank the Lord for the time I had with you. My dad my best friend I will miss you to the end.

Quinnell, Monique & Boobie

FINAL DISPOSITION:
Oxford Hills Crematory
Chester, New York

You all know that I have been working on my residency sending up my timer, picking up and getting ready to go. I knew that my house needed some finishing touches and that the Allah All Mighty had to inspect it and give me the final approval after saying goodbye to my love ones.

On Sunday, September 18 at 7:30am, He let me know that my home was ready and that it was okay to move in. He told me to go ahead and change my address.

Walter J. Wright known as Dad, Billy and Poppa-Bill was born to the late Melvin and Aletha Wright on November 17, 1953. He was the oldest child of six children.

He received his GED in the New York School District and thereafter, Billy joined in the United States Army in 1970 where he accomplished many tasks. In 1973, he was Honorably Discharged and received the Purple Heart Medal and was a Medal of Honor Recipient.

He worked under the District Council of Carpenters as a Welder and a Dock Builder from 1995-2012 where he then retired. Billy's favorite word was kid, "hey kid", "love you kid", "take care kid", etc. The things he loved was watching karate movies, he performed in martial arts, sports, and was an impeccable dresser. He loved looking good and smelling good.

Billy was preceded by his father, Melvin, his mother, Aletha, and his brother, Tony Wright. Cherishing his memories are: his oldest daughter, Tenja Wright (phila) and Rhondarett Wright (phila) whom he shared with Tryphena Wright; his son, Walter Wright, Jr. (NY) whom he shared with Donna Barrow; three sisters, Carrie Majette, Ann Wright and Pamela Smith; one brother, Michael Wright and Larry Ross, Sr. his half brother whom he shared with his father. Billy also will be cherished in memory by Donna Barrow whom he devoted his life with over 40 years while sharing a son and helping with raising two daughters, Tanisha and Nicole Concepcion; his one aunt, Martha Yates; nine grandkids; one great granddaughter; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins whom he all loved dearly.
