Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made someone smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just Remember Me!!!!

The year was 1949, August 30th, to be exact, and a great event was taking place at Newark City Hospital, the birth of Patricia Pitts, born to the late Deaconess Mamie and Deacon Warren Pitts. Patricia, affectionately called Patty was raised in a God fearing home where she was the third daughter, with her siblings, Wanda, Brenda, Leonard and Bryan. Patty confessed her faith in God and was baptized at an early age, by her uncle, Rev. William Howard Pitts, pastor of the True Love Missionary Baptist Church, in Newark, NJ.

Patty enjoyed her relationship with True Love by singing in the choir and attending Sunday School. On her weekly trip to choir rehearsal she enjoyed stopping to listen to the drum and bugle corp practicing at 18th Avenue Elementary. Also, who could resist stopping for a potato sandwich from “Jimmy Buff’s”. Memories, which were talked about often.

Patty was always interested in playing with her neighborhood friends. Patty’s first job began at age 14 working for the Recreation Department’s “Play Streets”. Patty was a wiz at numbers beginning in Avon Avenue Elementary School and continuing through high school at South Side High School (now known as Malcolm X Shabazz.). Being a part of various organizations at South Side was part of her people personality. Patty enrolled at Essex County College to further her education. Patty was always encouraged by her Mom and Dad to have a great work ethic and helping others, such as her nephews, with whom they all lived together.

Patty, continued her work history with a position with the Newark Board of Education, in the Payroll Department.

As the years passed Patty had one beloved son, Rajon. He truly was adored by his Mom. The foundation for his success was assisted by family members and various coaches. At Rajon’s football games, you could always find Patty cheering along the sidelines encouraging her son.

Rajon met and married Yasmina and to this union were born Patty’s much adored grandchildren, Alexander, Abigail and Amari.

Patty, continued her mothering spirit and hard work at her position in the Dean’s Office at Seton Hall University, from which she retired in February 2018.

Patty, missing the loves of her life moved to Las Vegas, Nevada in February, 2022, to be close to them. After a short illness, with her family at her side in Las Vegas, Patty was called home on September 14, 2022.

Patty, leaves to cherish her memory, her son Rajon (Yasmina), grandchildren, Alexander, Abigail and Amari. Her siblings, Wanda (Freddie Campbell), Brenda (Melvin Knight), Warren Leonard Jr. (Carolyn), and Bryan; Aunts, Alice Wilson and Jennie Jenkins; a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
