Obituary

Charles Bernard Blocker was born on May 10, 1940 to Mr. and Mrs. Simon and Annel Blocker and attended high school in Manhattan, New York.

At the age of seventeen, Charles enlisted in the Marine Corp. where he proudly served for his country.

After serving, he was employed as a Peace Officer in the Metropolitan Hospital Center in which he retired from.

Charles also known to his family as Uncle Charlie or Charlie was a character. He had a funny sense of humor. He was charming, a giver,(he always had gifts for everyone when he saw them.) He had the biggest contagious smile you will ever see, a no nonsense type of guy, very militant. When uncle Charlie looked at you with those big bulky eyes you knew he was serious. Uncle Charlie was also very big on education and always ensured that all the kids, nieces and nephews got one.

In 1968, he met Rosella Mance whom he had his first child with. A son was named after him Charles Bernard born on October 19, 1970.

Charlie or Uncle Charlie was a great role model, not only to his son, nieces and nephews but also to the four other children he helped raise with Rosella.

Charlie will be truly missed by all of his loved ones.

Charlie is preceded in death by his father, Simon Blocker and mother Annel Blocker, brothers Terry Blocker, and Simon Blocker Jr., one sister, Beatrice Wright, nephew Jeffrey Wright, and niece Annette Wright.

He leaves to mourn his one and only son, Charles Bernard Mance; daughter-in-law, Wakira; five grands, Beyani, Charles, Channell, Dejae and Deron; one great-grand, Nova. His estranged wife Annie Blocker; brothers, Pierre and Michael Blocker; four nieces Marietta and Bernadette Wright, Sharon and Donethia Williams; Many great nieces and nephews to count and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
