Obituary

Eugenia Webster was born on April 27, 1940 in Harlem, NY to Pauline Shomo and Eugene Lee. She was the baby girl and acted as such. Genia attended NYC public schools and graduated from Julia Richman H.S. She completed a Manhattan Nursing Program and became a Licensed Practical Nurse. As an LPN, she worked in many hospitals and nursing homes across the city. To match the various jobs, she also moved across the city living in West Harlem, the North Bronx, the South Bronx and Far Rockaway, Queens. If you were close to Genia then you knew she was bossy and tough. If you weren't close to her, you still knew that she was bossy and tough because that was her demeanor. But her passions were saving and traveling, so I'm certain that everyone who really knew her will have a story to share. I must say that she pushed for what she wanted and solicited whomever she could reach to accomplish her exact wishes. She was the epitome of being the baby-girl.

Genia is survived by: two sons, Anthony Webster and Daniel Webster; one sister, Pauline Smith; two daughter-in-laws, Michele Webster and Tedra Webster; two sister-in-laws, Luz Webster and Paulette Shomo; seven grandchildren, Anthony Webster, Kuwana Webster, Brandon Webster, Daniel Webster, Latasha Webster, Kenneth Webster, and Diamond Webster; many great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other extended family.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
