Recessional

Ruth Evans Fields, affectionately known as “Sis,” was born March 16, 1938, in Vance County, North Carolina to the late Daniel Evans and the late Victoria Bullock Evans.

Educated in the Vance County School system, at the age of 18, Sis moved to New Jersey where she met and married the late John Henry Fields in 1957. They had one daughter (Jerusha Elaine) and four sons (John Earl, Jr., Jeffrey Allen, Larry Arnold, and Owen Dexter). Sis worked for Verizon (formerly Bell Atlantic) for 31 years before retiring in 2000.

Upon moving to New Jersey, loving the Lord, Sis became a member of Zion Temple First Pentecostal Church. She later joined the Morning Star United Holy Church (now Morning Star Community Christian Center) where she was a member for many years. Sis loved singing in the choir, and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, making clothes and sewing in general.

On September 29, 2022, Sis was called home to be with the Lord and will truly be missed by all. Ruth was predeceased by her husband John Henry Fields and her brothers Daniel Evans (twin) and Ronald Evans.

She leaves to mourn her daughter Jerusha Anderson, sons John Fields, Jr., Jeffrey Fields, Larry Fields, and Owen (wife Darlene) Fields, Sr., all of New Jersey, 20 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren; her sister Carolyn Evans Ross of North Carolina and brother James “Ted” Bullock of North Carolina; sisters-in-law Ruth Bullock of North Carolina, Dorothy Suite of North Carolina, Melveria Evans Perkins of New Jersey, Marian Fields of New Jersey, and Sheila Cousins of Georgia; brothers-in-law Jessie Fields of New Jersey, and Bishop William Cousins of Georgia and a host of other family members and loving friends.
