Obituary

Saladeen Cochrane was born on September 11th, 1981 in Harlem, New York to Josephine “Faheemah” Cochrane and to the late Ronald “Red” Gould and returned home on October 3rd, 2022.

Saladeen lived and worked in New York City for most of his life. He attended P.S. 28, Sister Clara Muhammed, and for high school he went to Seward Park. He held various positions in construction and handled maintenance at the Apollo.

Saladeen leaves behind two children, Saareem Cochrane (15) and Sumaya Cochrane (12) with former wife, Karima Jordan. Also leaving behind a son, Saladeen Cochrane (7) with Andrea Faulkner; with whom he also shared a predeceased son, Saladeen Cochrane. Saladeen also left behind a sister, Jamillah Gould-Thomas; brother-in-law, Sean Thomas; grandmother, Kansas Cochrane; niece and nephew, Naadirah and Khalil Moore; aunts, Karen, Robin and Eleanor Cochrane; an uncle, Nelson Pearson; his cousins, Walika Acevado, Ebonee Cochrane, Jibril Acevado, Carlton Gould, Tina Certain, and Cianni Schello; and a host of other cousins and family members.

Until the last moments of life, Saladeen enjoyed being with family and friends and during his free time, learning his deen, music, dancing and eating good food. He was the type of person to walk around spreading his goofy and warm nature to those he loved, brightening their day with his smile without even realizing.

Saladeen fought hard for a few days before it became evident that Allah was ready for him, so finally he was able to rest. He was a son, brother, friend, uncle, and father.

Long live Saladeen Cochrane in our hearts.
