Obituary

Benjamin Daniels, Jr. was born March 6, 1942, to Benjamin and Helen Daniels, Sr.

Benjamin received his formal education at PS 35 and later attended New York City College of Technology where he obtained his Associates Degree.

Benjamin was employed by the Human Resources Association as a Senior Special Officer for 30 years.

Benjamin met and married the love of his life "Emily" and they remained united for 48 years, and to this union 4 children was born.

Benjamin was very intellectual and know for always putting his priorities first and making sure that important issues were taken care of.

Benjamin was a person who cared deeply for others; whether during sickness, distress, or death, Benjamin would find a way to be supportive.

As everyone knew, Benjamin was the most caring and loving father, generous to a fault, and an outstanding family man.

Benjamin leaves to cherish his memory and celebrate his legacy his loving wife for 48 years - Emily, his four children, Martin, Derrick, John, and Yvette. Benjamin leaves one brother, William and four sister, Helen, Evelyn, Carolyn, Jacqueline Geraldine. Benjamin leaves three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Benjamin will be truly missed.

Benjamin wants all his friends and loved one to remember these words that he lived by recorded on John 14:1-2, " Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
