ADORED WIFE, MOTHER, SISTER, AND FRIEND

“Be grateful every second of every day that you get to spend with the people you love.”

Neetu Dalphus-Sammy, age 41, passed away on the 9th of October 2022. Neetu was born in Palmiste, Trinidad and Tobago where she lived until migrating to the USA where she settled in the Oranges and spent the rest of her time here on this earth.

Neetu was a graduate of Orange High School where she was voted Homecoming Queen and best dressed. She had a passion for fashion and loved to dress to the nines with her signature red lipstick and sindoor. She wouldn't dream of leaving the house without a pair of earrings as one couldn't possibly be fully dressed otherwise.

Neetu met her husband John Sammy in 2002 and after a courtship full of love and adventure, they were married on October 24, 2007. Neetu and John share a 12-year-old son, Johnathan Sammy.

Everyone that knows Neetu knows she was the life of the party. She loved and valued her culture, her music, and her people - she was an “Indian to her heart”. She could make anyone burst out in laughter and she lit up the room with her million-dollar smile. Neetu cared deeply for her family and always wanted them close to her. She had a great love for children, and she adored all her nieces and nephews. Despite her short time in this life, she was loved, and she brought immense joy to those around her. She was someone special. Neetu added (extra) spice to our lives and she is the thread that has sewn so many of us together for a lifetime.

Neetu was predeceased by her parents, Arjun Dalphus and Mangari Ramjit. She is survived by her husband of 15 years, John Sammy, and her son Johnathan Sammy. She leaves behind her sister Parbattie Dalphus, her brothers Ramdial Dalphus and Dhanraj Dalphus, her loving In-Laws and her many nieces and nephews – all whom she loved dearly.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God was going
To call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God call us one by one
The chain will link again
