Obituary

Randall Williams was born November 9, 1973, in Union, NJ, to Stephanie Williams and Alvin Jones. He departed this life on Monday, October 10, 2022, at the age of 48, in Newark, NJ.

Due to his tendency to have an opinion about everything going on around him, he was lovingly nick-named “Shrimp” as a toddler. Randall was active and curious completing childhood milestones ahead of expectations (sat upright on his own at 2-months-old; never crawled on his knees; walked alone at 11-months-old). As the only child, he was allowed to think, verify and follow his own mind.

Randall attended elementary school in Newark, then middle and high school in East Orange, NJ. As a teenager, his nickname was shortened to “Rimp.” Later, his tag was “Mr. Gne,” (pronounced Genie – look at him, you’ll figure out why) or “G,” depending on your relationship. He preferred Rimp. His favorite color was red and his favorite sports teams were the Chicago Bears the Chicago Bulls.

Coming from a musically inclined family, Randall always loved creating music. His playlist ranged from Amadeus Mozart to De La Sol. He loved playing the drums, DJing for friends and gaming with his sons. As time progressed, he became an avid entrepreneur. His staple was healthcare supplements as well as alkaline water. He enjoyed participating in vending events across the tristate area and along the East Coast. He introduced apparel to broaden his brand, wefly4lunch.

Randall is survived by his wife, Sheffai Williams, mother, Stephanie Williams, sons Jorr-Dan S. Williams and Masr C. Andrews, daughter Jerzie M. Williams, mother-in-law Sheila Wright, father-in-law Michael Stewart, and brother-in-law Kyle Kinchelov, as well as, extended family, a host of friends and other relatives.

"A Silent Tear"

by Gaynor Llewellyn

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "UP ABOVE".
