Obituary

Cassie Mae Banks was born on February 26, 1924 to the late Reece and Sallie Watson in Damascus, Georgia. She was the third of four children.

She met and married Alfred H. Banks. This union produced five children. Cassie moved to New York from Detroit, Michigan in 1957. She worked at Central Laundry until her retirement.

Cassie began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and was baptized on June 26, 1964. She always shared the truth from the Bible with her family. She was a quiet and reserved person, but in time she widened out and gained very close friends in the congregation. Cassie was very active in the ministry. She loved her family, especially the grandchildren and loved to spend time with them.

Cassie Mae Banks was preceded in death by her parents, Reece and Sallie Watson; aunt, Viola Thornton; her husband, Alfred H. Banks; her sisters, Annie Bell Drake and Catherine Watson; and her brother, Willie (Buddy) Watson.

She leaves to cherish her memory five children and their children: daughter, Barbara Thomas and her children, (Donna, deceased), LaJoyce and Earl Thomas III; son, Alfred H. Banks, Jr. and wife, Thelma, their daughter, Nerina; daughter, Delores Gooden and her children, Marvin, Jr., Jason and his wife, Shirley; daughter, Saretha Diaz and her husband, Evaristo, and children, Michelle, Michael, Sireta and her husband, Patrick; daughter, Elaine Hamilton, (Anthony, deceased), Jasmine, Alex, Marcus, and grandson, Jaceon; and a host of great grands, great great grands, nieces, nephews and her spiritual family.

Psalm 37:29

The righteous will possess the earth, And they will live forever on it.

Revelation 21:4, 5

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,
and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” And the One seated on the throne said: “Look! I am making all things new.” Also he says: “Write, for these words are faithful and true.”
