Obituary

William Henry Jones was born in North Carolina to Hanna and Casey Jones. After moving from North Carolina to New Jersey in his 20's, he worked as a cook at Overlook Hospital. He met his wife Cynthia Jones in 1976 at the age of 34, they then married two years later in 1978. He later worked at Accupowder, where he would retire of 23 years. William was a devoted father of three. Sheila, 36 and his late sons Hassan and Maurice.

William was funny, down to earth and would tell it like it is. His favorite hobbies was traveling, fishing, working around the house and planting in his vegetable garden. William would travel to North Carolina to see his family, with his red van and cooler in toe every summer. When his children was younger ,as a family tradition he would take everyone to Six Flags where he won stuffed animals for the kids. His favorite pass time was sitting in the garage, grilling with a beer in his hand, listening to oldies but goodies. William went on his last vacation this past August for his 80th birthday in the Poconos. He celebrated his birthday with close family and loved ones.

William leaves his wife Cynthia Jones and daughter Sheila Jones. His grandchildren Nafiz, Khalil, Zahid and Kimara. His sisters ,nephews, nieces and cousins. William will be remembered for his funny jokes and big smile. He will be missed.
