

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Recessional

John Earl Fields, Jr. was born June 16, 1959, in Elizabeth, New Jersey to the late John Henry Fields and the late Ruth Evans Fields.

John was educated in the Elizabeth Public School System until his completion. John then worked for several companies: Ullrich Copper, Mailing Services and Eastern Sheet Metal. John's passion and talents lead him to become a well-known Self-Employed Handy Man for many years until his untimely death. If you needed it diagnosed, built, rebuilt, fixed, or painted John was the man to call.

If John was not on the job, he was spending his spare time fishing, which he loved, often calling himself "The Bass Man". John was a member of the Morning Star Holy Church now (Morning Start Community Christian Center) where he enjoyed singing in the Youth Choir. On April 26, 2005, John would be blessed with his one and only child Jonneysia Iris Ruth Fields which he adored.

On October 15, 2022, John was called home to be with the lord and will be truly missed by all.

He leaves to mourn his daughter Jonneysia Iris Ruth Fields (Roselle NJ), sister Jerusha Anderson (Linden NJ), brothers Jeffrey and Larry Fields (Roselle NJ), and Owen Fields (Darlene) (Linden NJ) and a host of other family and loving friends.
