Obituary

Claudette Bailey-Ifill was born on June 21st, 1942 in Eversham, Corentyne, Berbice, Guyana. She was the daughter of the late Louisa Logan and George McBean, wife of the late Egbert Ifill, and mother of 7 children.

Claudette worked at Demico House, Bank DIH, Stabroek for 27 years. After the passing of her husband she migrated to the U.S in 1998 to live with her daughter, Carol Grant and her family. Claudette was a very hardworking mother and father to her children. Her home was a place of refuge to many. She was very outspoken and always made time for a good conversation. She was also one to make sure you never left her presence hungry.

Claudette suffered hardship and injustices for a great part of her life but despite all those obstacles she was still able to help many of the less fortunate in her circle. Some of her hobbies were: Dancing, singing and cooking. She also took joy in a good movie, not to mention she loved returning to her home country to visit her only surviving sister, Mayglen Browne.

Claudette will be sincerely missed by those that loved her.

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth

And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you

And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering
He saw the road was getting rough

And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids

And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you

But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.
