OBITUARY

Troy Lamont Walker, affectionately known by many other names including “P.O.”, “P.O.W”, and “Young Dour” was born to Carol Walker and Herbert Walker on September 2nd, 1981. Troy was laid to rest on October 10th, 2022 at 2:30 pm EST.

A native and lifetime resident of Harlem; Troy attended the Martin Luther King Jr. High School in Manhattan, NY. Troy was later accepted into and briefly attended college. P.O. on the other hand was accepted into the School of Hard Knocks and went on to receive his Pharm. D. After graduation, Troy went on to open his own business serving the communities of Harlem, Miami, and beyond in herbal and western medicinal remedies.

Troy was a jokester, master imitator, and avid sports lover. He was one of the only people we knew who would read every sports statistic in the newspaper including golf, baseball, and hockey. Troy was non-discriminatory when it came to his stats. NBA, NHL, NFL, and MLB were some of his favorite acronyms.

If anything is true you'll find that everyone here has a story about P.O. from how he never forgave people, or how he hated to take pictures, or how he had a tendency to simply "pop up" on you when you least expected it, and even how cheap he was. One thing Troy could do was save some money. He hated being broke and kept his business to himself.

As a staple within the community, Troy was influential in helping garner some careers of famous rap artists such as Max B, who recently reached out to the family to give his condolences and well wishes. Troy (P.O.) was integral in helping keep some youth on track within the community providing his expertise and assistance where needed. He is loved and will be missed. Gone, but never forgotten.

Troy is preceded in death by several family members including his mother and father, Carol and Herbert Walker; his grandmother, Vinona Allen-West; grand uncle, Julius Allen; uncle and aunts, Melrose West, Cynthia Rose West, and Cassandra Eileen West.

Troy leaves behind his: brother, William Walker; sister, Brittany Walker; niece, Madison Walker; nephew, William Walker; cousins, Bashiri West and Nzingha West; his blood brothers, Daquan Bruce and Michael Stewart; and a host of other close friends and family.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
