The Daughters Poem:

*Man of many faces
Heart of many places
Backbone of many spines
Common thread of many a good time
Father, Grandfather, Husband,
Brother, Uncle, Cousin, Friend
Forever missed by many until you seen again.*

Gene L. Hudson departed this life October 9, 2022 at Atlantic County Medical Center in Atlantic City, NJ. Gene known as Fuquan or Fu was born on April 12, 1965 in Elizabeth, NJ to the Late Eugene & Jessie Hudson.

Gene lived a life of adventure, joy, love and happiness. A passionate family man, Gene was happiest when he was surrounded by the ones he loved. A paragraph of accomplishments could never describe the beautiful light when he enters every room, every event, and to every person who knew him.

His spirit, smile, dimples, laugh, and genuine kindness will forever be missed by the family and friends he left behind.

He graduated from Elizabeth High School in Elizabeth, NJ. Gene worked various jobs, upon his departure, he worked for Best Provision Inc, in Newark, NJ, where he was known as a “Cool Dude” his coworkers loved and respected him.

He also volunteered at the African American Cultural Center in Elizabeth, NJ helping his 2 brothers, clean and maintain the building when they needed extra help.

He called his daughters “Stinker” up until the age of 5 and then he called them “Baby Girls”.

Gene was predeceased by; brother Curtis Eleazer (Yvette), sister Sharon Darlene Dreher (Marshall), Aunt Vivian Caughman, Uncle Raymond Eleazer and father in-law Henry Mack, Jr.

Gene leaves behind his wife Angela Mack-Hudson, 2 children Tiffany Drayton and Amira Hudson, 3 grandsons Stephon Jr, Samir and Saeed Paige, Uncle Willie Mac Eleazer, 2 brothers, Troy (Lisa) & Elliott (Denise) Hudson of Elizabeth, NJ and sister Tammy Clark of New York. Mother in-law Dorothy Mack, brothers & sisters in laws Adrienne (Lang) Funchers and Michelle Hasker from Trenton, NJ, Robbin, Duane (Artrella) Mack from Georgia, Sandra Washington from Texas, Jeanne Oliver-Taylor from New York, Henry Mack III from Newark, NJ and a host of nephews, nieces and great nephews & nieces, cousins and friends will grieve his memory fondly.
