Obituary

Mamie L Williams was born to Samuel Hardwick and Lula Bell Armour on January 26th 1936 in Columbus, Georgia.

Mamie was soft spoken and was a loving caring individual that always made time for family and friends. Mamie was one of those type of individuals that you can talk to about anything with no judgment.

Mamie worked hard as a house keeper to help people keep their homes clean and organized for over 20 years. Even though she had long days cleaning, she still came home and maintained home life as a devote wife and mother of 4 children as well as a dear friend to many.

One thing everyone knows Mamie for was her love for cooking and hosting gatherings for family and friends.

Mamie was very independent when it came to taking care of herself and even would travel to Atlantic City by herself to gamble and win some money and she was good at it.

Mamie hobbies were to collect vintage stamps and coins. She also had a collections of antique porcelain dolls she cherish and displayed beautifully.

Mamie survived three of her children Kenneth, Gloria and Melvin. She leaves behind to cherish her loving memories: youngest son Morris Jr.

Along with sisters Mary and Joe and ten grandchildren along with many great grandchildren. Also, dear cousins and friends.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God was going
To call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God call us one by one
The chain will link again
