Obituary

Hazel Ann Woody was born on October 6th, 1955, in Harlem, New York to Walter and Luella Woody. The youngest of four children, her love and bond with her siblings and family was as strong as her presence and personality and is something that is missed daily.

Like her mother, Hazel opened her door to anyone and always made everyone feel like family. She offered advice, counsel, and often went the extra mile to ensure that if a person needed help, they would get it. She dedicated her life to the enrichment of others through her unyielding faith in God and work at ABSW Daycare Center where she was employed for 30 plus years.

She did not sugarcoat the truth, a quality coupled with her fierce independence that could make you angry and inspire you all the same. She was a sweet, caring, thoughtful, genuine, and outgoing person. She was well known in her neighborhood and always made an appearance when invited to gatherings or events. Hazel had a zest for life and loved going out and being a part of the community. She adored taking pictures, shopping, and traveling. Hazel was one of a kind and she was the glue that kept the family together.

Hazel leaves behind to cherish her memory: two sisters, Delores Washington and Shirley Workman, three children, Lashawn Connor, Stanley Woody, and Darcel Woody Washington; nine grandchildren, Eric Woody, Nickell Woody, Cheyenne Bonaparte, Kareem Richardson, Nasir Thomas, Laron Woody, Kaylee Connor, Ariana Connor, and Elijah Rodriguez; three great grandchildren, Janiah Woody, Nyles Richardson, and Kairo Connor; her dedicated partner in life, John Judge; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins, neighbors, and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
