Obituary

Elease Robinson was born on April 12, 1939, in Darlington, SC. She was the daughter of Annie Lee and David Hamm.

She was the sixth child of seven and was educated in the Darlington School System.

On March 10, 1957, Elease married Jerry E. Robinson, and they later relocated to Paterson, NJ. To this union, four children were born: Fredrick, Gregory, Aaron and Marcella.

Elease was an athletic young lady. She played softball for several South Carolina and New Jersey teams. She instilled athleticism into her children, and they all followed in her footsteps. She enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. Her doors were always open especially on Sundays when all the neighborhood kids would come to eat.

She was employed by Helen's Candy Factory, Manhattan Shirt Company, and provided professional homemaker services to several families, and her last place of employment was with the YCS Youth Services in Hackensack, NJ until her retirement in 2006.

Elease loved attending the Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ. She stayed for both morning and evening services, sharing her cooking skills during the dinner breaks. She also enjoyed hearing God's word and enjoying gospel music at the Greater Bethel Church of Christ.

During her down time, Elease loved traveling. It was a tradition she started and continued with her family. No grass grew under the feet of any Hamm or Robinson. She also loved watching soap operas, and listening to gospel music while she was at home relaxing.

On Thursday, February 2, 2023, Elease departed this life and traded labor for reward.

Elease was preceded in death by her parents; Annie Lee and David Hamm, husband; Jerry Eugene Robinson, son; Gregory Robinson, sisters; Millis Wise, Jessie Houston, Hattie Mae Hamm, and Barbara Westley, and brothers; Sylvester Hamm and Joseph Hamm.

Mommy

Mommy we love you and we will miss you so much
Our lives will be different missing your special touch
We thank you for being a wonderful mother
You were beautiful yes indeed
You were always there for us during our times in need
You nurtured our hearts and left an impression that will never go away
We know that God called you home
even though we wanted you to stay
As the tears began to fall and run down our face
We find comfort in knowing that our mother is in a better place
So, mommy we love you
And we wish you were here
But our time spent apart is temporary
Because we will see you again in Heaven when we get there
