Obituary

Mynetta McCutcheon was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, niece, and friend who went to be with the Lord on Thursday, March 30th, 2023, at 7:35 am after a courageous battle with cancer. She was surrounded by loved ones whose lives will be forever changed by Mynetta's presence on this earth.

Born to Eddie and Stella McCutcheon, both of whom have passed on, Mynetta lived her life on her terms, never backing down when life gave her more than she could handle and always choosing to see the glass as half full. She had a grace and peace about her that made you want to share your life with her, and if you asked her to walk a mile with you, she always went ten.

She was a loving, kind-hearted soul with a compassion that touched everyone who crossed her path. She greatly cherished her family and close friends, and she always filled the room with joy and laughter. And anyone who knew her also knew that her honest opinion will be known whether asked for or not. She had a light of truth, joy, and the purest of love that transcended and transformed any environment she was in.

Mynetta is survived by: her sister, Blanche Dunbar, and brother-in-law, Michael Dunbar; her sister, Andrea McCutcheon; two nephews, Rodney Timmons and Andre Timmons; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Her passing isn't a loss but an exchange, as her light will continue to touch the lives of her loved ones until the end of time. She leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering strength that will continue to empower those she loved to live their lives with kindness, boldness, grace, and peace.

- Mynetta was our dear friend and valued colleague in the Office of Academic Affairs. INTERMENT:

The Evergreens Cemetery

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
