Obituary

Andrea Dorfeuille passed away June 18, 2023 with her son by her side at RWJ at Somerset in Somerville, New Jersey.

Born on April 9, 1930 in Cayes, Haiti. Andrea was the first of four children and played the role of their guardian very well. Her siblings respected and appreciated her guiding presence at all times. In her younger years, she made a living being a seamstress to make sure her only child Wilbert Bataille was well taken care of. This involved making sure he had a good education, was well fed, and had an enjoyable childhood. She immigrated from Haiti to the United States of America to be reunited with her family 22 years ago. Since moving to the United States she started studying the bible and dedicated her life to Jehovah on July 20, 2003. Her warm and welcoming personality made it very easy for individuals to see her as their own family. She was loved, adored, and cared for everyone around her. She greatly followed the bible principal found in Matthew 22:39 which encourages us to love our neighbors. She did this by preaching the word of God to anyone she encountered, whether out in field service or her friends and family. She also showed her love by caring for her 4 grandchildren. She will be missed and while we say goodbye today we do know that we will meet with her again soon.

She is survived by her only son Wilbert Bataille. Her daughter in law and very best friend Magalie Bataille. Their four children Olivier Bataille, Priscil Bataille, Amandine Bataille, and Lyide Bataille. Her very close friends Gladys Benjamin, Emmanuel Bauzil, Michelle Bauzil, and Gerda Pierre.

Psalm 23

*Jehovah is my Shepherd. I will lack nothing.
In grassy pastures he makes me lie down;
He leads me to well-watered resting-places
He refreshes me. He leads me in the paths of righteousness for the sake of his name.
Though I walk in the valley of deep shadow,
I fear no harm, For you are with me;
Your rod and your staff reassure me.
You prepare a table for me before my enemies.
You refresh my head with oil; My cup is well-filled.
Surely goodness and loyal love will pursue me all the days of my life, And I will dwell in the house of Jehovah for all my days.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May Jehovah Bless and Keep You!
