OBITUARY

Allen Maurice Little, Jr. was called home on August 8th, 2023, at the age of 38. He was a loving father of five children, Deziah Davis, Jasiah Naraine, Paris Davis, Callie Pettus, and Saige Pettus. Also, a loving older brother to Ashanté Henry.

Born in East Harlem, New York, in Metropolitan Hospital, he was the son of late Paula Denise Henry and Allen Maurice Little, Sr. He attended public school in Manhattan and graduated with a High School Diploma. He then later obtained a career in the trucking industry.

Allen had an athletic background, he was a part of Harlem Little Leagues as a child, in addition to riding bikes. He also enjoyed roller skating, playing basketball, video games, and going to the gym in his spare time for amusement. He was well-known in Skate Key for doing backflips and his impeccable skill on roller skates. Allen also had an amazing talent in singing and dancing. He would idolize and mimic dance moves from artists such as, Usher, B2K, and Chris Brown in his teenager years. He will be remembered for his humorous and kindhearted attitude towards others and family members. His smile and laughter would always light up any room. Although Allen was an introvert, a lot of people loved his presence and gravitated towards him either way.

Mother, late Paula Henry; father, Allen Maurice Little, Sr.; sisters, Ashanté, Kaysha and Danielle; children, Deziah, Jasiah, Paris, Callie, and Saige (oldest to youngest); grandmothers, late Alma Henry and Joyce Holloway; grandfather, late Ernest Henry, Sr.; aunt, Alicia Holloway; uncles, Uncle Ernest and late Carlton, Sr.; surrogate aunts, Sherrieann and Rember, Iris Seymore; cousins: George, Koko, Juanita, Carlton, Marquis, Jesse, and Tamia; godmother, Phyllis Hudson; and a host of relatives, loved ones and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
