Obituary

Clarence James Gadson was born on June 26, 1950, to the union of Georgie and Alfred Gadson in Harlem, New York.

Clarence graduated from Brandeis High School. In 1970, he joined the United States Army. After his time in the Army, he held several jobs that included the family business at the Ice House, where he got his nickname (Ice or Ice Man). He drove for the Gray Line Bus Company and also worked as a Driving Instructor for Driving School in Harlem.

Clarence had a love for music, sports and driving.

He met Ernestine Weathers, whom he would later marry and to their union, have his only born child, Clarence Jr.

Clarence James Gadson departed from this life on Friday, April 12, 2024. He will always be remembered for his smile, sense of humor and above all for his love for his family and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his partner and companion, Deborah Bobian; children, Clarence Jr., Tanya Weathers, and Catherine Morrison; two brothers, Alfred and Howard; two sisters, Verna and Loretta; grandchildren, Rayshawn Weathers and Ryan Kabre; nieces and nephews, Nichele, Wanda, Mercedes, Linda, LaTonya, Makeba, Isaiah, Cecila, and Slick; and a host of cousins, great nieces and nephews, and other relatives.

Their Memory Stays

Although they have passed on,
Their memory forever stays.
Remember how they smiled,
and the joy they always gave.
We'll miss them all the time,
and think of them every day.
Their love filled the world
A love that will never fade.
