Christopher Davis was born on September 15, 1974, in Jersey City, New Jersey, to the late Lydia A. Davis and James Davis. Christopher was the 10th child born out of 11 children. He grew up in Marion Gardens under the guidance of Pastor Lydia A. Davis.

Christopher had a passion for drawing. He loved to draw cartoon images and characters from cereal boxes. He was known for saying “You know how to do it”, and “I tried to tell you”. We are going to miss his affectionate smile, his laugh that would always brightens people’s day.

Christopher walked through life with a gentle strength, touching the lives of everyone he encountered. Christopher loved his family.

Christopher departed this world on May 28, 2024. He joins his late mother Pastor Lydia A. Davis, his father James Davis, his sisters Linda Davis, Brenda K. Davis, Mary Davis and Florence Davis. He leaves to behind his sister Regina Davis, his brothers Ricky, Samuel, Timothy, James and Jehoshaphat Davis. A host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews whom he loved. Christopher gained his wings and will be missed. Take your rest in the arms of God.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
