In Loving Memory of Frances Bullock

Frances Bullock, daughter of George Terry and Georgia (Washington) Terry, entered this world on November 6, 1962, in Newark, NJ. She received her education through the Newark Public School System, attending Charlton St. School and later Central High School. The family later relocated to Scotch Plains, New Jersey.

Frances was united in holy matrimony to John Daniel Bullock on June 1, 1985 in Newark, NJ. Together, they shared a journey of love, mutual respect, and cherished moments that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew them.

She was employed by American Express for many years.

Frances was a devoted member of the Newark Church of Christ, where she was baptized under the guidance of Brother Eugene Lawton. She lived her life with a compassionate heart, always eager to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Frances cherished time spent with her family, finding joy in their company.

On Saturday, June 29, 2024, Frances peacefully departed this life.

Frances was preceded in death by her beloved husband, John Daniel Bullock, her parents, George and Georgia (Washington) Terry, her brother, George Terry Jr., and her sister, Vivian Lynn McElroy.

Left to treasure her memory are her two sons, Labeeb Terry and John D. Bullock; three brothers, Anthony "Tony" Best, Robert Terry, and Gene Terry; five sisters, Marjorie Abu Baker, Lois Terry, Alisia Robinson, Phyllis Terry, and Sharonda Best; sisters-in-law, Alice Best and Sharon Terry; brothers-in-law, Troy, Kevin and Joseph Bullock; nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members the William and Tony's along with "a plethora of wonderful loving friends" as she had many; her BFF Tammy. She also leaves behind her aunt, Clara (Axam) Martin, and her devoted great niece, Zayyicah Terry-Tutt, who was her road dawg.

Frances Bullock will be dearly missed and forever remembered for her generosity, kindness, and love for her family.
