Obituary

Anna Lee Caesar Morton was born on June 14, 1928, in Belleville, New Jersey. She was the 13th of 14 children born to James Caesar and Cornelia Ford Caesar. Anna attended the public schools of Belleville and graduated from Belleville High School in 1946. She later moved to Newark NJ and became a lifelong resident.

Anna worked at various places. She ultimately worked at Ardell Industries in Union NJ for 25 years, retiring in 1992. She loved the Lord and was a faithful member of New Eden Baptist Church in Newark for more than 50 years. She participated in many church groups and activities, but mostly enjoyed singing in the senior choir. Anna loved her family, her home, her church, her television shows, word search puzzles, celebrating her birthday, traveling in her early years, and President Obama.

Anna was predeceased by her parents, James and Cornelia Caesar; her siblings, Karine, Daniela, James, Bossi, Garfield, Sarah, Nathaniel, Dorothy, and Samuel; and her children, Roy Ashe and Selena Morton. Anna leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Sarah Ashe, Charlene Berry, and Stanley Morton (Vonda); her grandchildren, Tisha Darby, Kelli Wheeler-Weaver (James), James Berry, Stephen Morton, and David Morton; her great-grandchildren, Darnell Works, Shahadah Boss, Mark Wheeler-Weaver and Marian Wheeler-Weaver; and many nieces, nephews, and friends.

Her Journey

Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting,
from the sorrow and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort,
where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today.
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of her as living,
in the hearts of those she touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost,
and she was loved so much.
