

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
 I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little-but not too long,
 and not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love that we once shared,
 Miss me-but let me go.
 For this is a journey that we all must take,
 And each must go alone.
 It's all part of the Master's plan,
 A step on the road to home.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart,
 Go to the friends we know.
 Laugh at the things we use to do
 Miss me-but let me go.

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

Jeanette Johnson

February 19, 1942 - August 15, 2024

Obituary

Jeanette Johnson, daughter of Robert Wright and Mabel Hendricks was born on February 19, 1942 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Jeanette's younger years were spent in Virginia with her mother Mabel, her brothers Claudine and Robert, and cousins Juanita and Patricia. She attended Cotton Creek School and East End High School in Mecklenburg County.

Jeanette was gainfully employed by the NYC Dept. of Social Services for over 20 years and had an outstanding work ethic. Once retired from the city, she spent time with her family, working in her church as president of the silent worker ministry, sending cards to sick and shut in church members, reading, completing all sorts of puzzles, crafting, tending to her beautiful plant nursery, listening to and singing her favorite songs, and selflessly tending to an ailing family member until she became too ill to manage.

Jeanette's selfless soul is the evidence that she had the true heart of God. She loved helping people. Jeanette was married to Junious Johnson for many years and from that union had three sons. Her oldest son, Julius, who resides in Savannah, GA with his wife, Julie and their three adult children, Jillian (husband Taff), Julius (wife Shakema), and Jordan (wife Latora). From these marriages Jeanette has 10 great grandchildren. Her second son, Jason, who resides in the Bronx, NY with his sons Shane, Amir, Andrew and daughter, Alani and her youngest son, Jarvis, who also resides in the Bronx with the love of his life Susan and their son Jarvis Jr. and daughters Myasia (NJ) and Sonaiya (LA).

Jeanette was preceded in death by her parents and brothers, Claudine and Robert. She also leaves behind her aunt Lucy and the "Golden Girls" Freeda, Juanita and Patricia.

Jeanette had a kind and giving heart, a hearty and distinct laugh and selfless soul. Those who truly knew her will never forget her. A loving daughter and sister. A very special mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great grandmother, cousin, aunt and friend.

Rest on dear Jeanette. We love you. We miss you so much already. God has called and you answered.
