

A Poem for My Mother

For five long years, you fought with grace,
Through endless nights and endless days.
A warrior's heart, so brave and true,
Through every tear, you still pulled through.

The road was hard, the climb so steep,
Yet in your love, we found relief.
You smiled through pain, you held on tight,
But now you've found eternal light.

The fight is over, your peace is here,
Yet in our hearts, you're always near.
Your love remains, a guiding star,
Forever with us, never far.

Rest now, dear mother, your battle won,
In Heaven's light, your journey's done.
In every tear, and every day,
You're with us still, in every way.

Jacqueline Conover, lovingly known as "Jackie," passed away peacefully in the early morning of September 3, 2024, in Newark, Delaware.

Born on January 1, 1958, in Newark, New Jersey, Jackie was a woman of remarkable strength, intelligence, and determination. She possessed a fierce work ethic, a stubborn resolve, and a sharp wit that endeared her to all who knew her. Despite the challenges she faced, Jackie approached life with humor and grace, never letting her illness define her.

Jackie found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved traveling with her friends and family, whether it was to far-off destinations or a quick trip to the casino. She enjoyed watching her favorite sports on TV, as well as indulging in the latest reality TV shows. At home, she was a hands-on person, always working on DIY projects to make her surroundings more beautiful and comfortable.

Jackie spent the first 46 years of her life in New Jersey, where she built a strong foundation of love and family. In 2004, she moved to Delaware, where she lived for the next 20 years, creating a beautiful home with her loved ones. Despite her deep roots in Delaware, Jackie always knew she wanted to return to New Jersey to be with her family in the end.

Jackie is now reunited in Heaven with her beloved brother, Steve Jones, and her father, John Jacobs. She leaves behind a legacy of love and resilience, carried on by her children, Nigel and Nicole Conover, her mother, Harriet Jacobs, her sisters, Patricia Hall and Rosalyn Walker, and her nieces and nephews, Sharif Hall, Shakeera Hall, Khalil Hall, Kalaya Walker, and Keisha Hall. She also leaves behind her faithful dog, Hunter, along with her aunts, cousins, grand nieces and nephews, and many cherished friends.

Jackie's journey began in East Orange, New Jersey, where she graduated from East Orange High School in 1976. She continued her education at Bloomfield College, earning a BS in Business Administration/Accounting in 1981. Jackie was a dedicated and accomplished corporate tax accountant, beginning her career at Chubb & Son Inc in 1977, where she worked for 18 years. She retired from JPMorgan in 2023 after 12 years of service, leaving behind a legacy of professionalism and excellence.

Jackie's family takes comfort in knowing that she is finally at rest, free from pain and suffering. Her wish was for her loved ones to take good care of her children and to continue the legacy of love and strength that she embodied throughout her life.

In our hearts, Jackie will forever remain—a beacon of love, resilience, and unwavering spirit. She will be deeply missed, but her memory will live on in the lives of those she touched.

Rest in peace, dear Jackie, until we meet again.
