Obituary

Patricia Ann Davis was born in Harlem Hospital to her parents, Barbara Ann Davis and Joseph Davis on October 23, 1958. She was raised in Harlem, New York City by her parents along with her siblings, Joyce Ann, Gale Lee, Joseph Jr., Lois, Anthony, Barry Lee, and Shirley Ann whom she leaves to mourn.

Patricia completed her education at P.S. 123, Junior High School 136, Benjamin Franklin High, and she furthered her education at Wilfred Academy. Upon completing Wilfred Academy and obtaining her Beatification License Patricia decided to make a career change in security in the highest levels. She was very dedicated to her job where she worked for many years.

Patricia is preceded in death by her father Joseph Davis and her oldest brother Robert Jones.

She leaves a legacy through her daughter Tasheen; her sons Raheem and Jamel; her grandchildren Deshawn and Diamond; her great grandchildren Desire, Deshawn Jr., and her newest addition Jamill.

Patricia will be remembered for her big smile, always offering candy and snacks from her purse to everyone, especially her nieces and nephews, her I don't play attitude, and her love for music, one of her favorite songs was Misty Blue.
