Obituary

Andrew was born in Hotfield, Jamaica on August 26, 1938, to parents Joseph and Rosalyn Pennant. He started his early education at Hotfield Primary School, and then went on to Homewood Technical School.

Andrew initially went on to teach at Brompton Primary School, before later working for Alcan Jamaica. In 1968, Andrew received a student visa and traveled to New York City to study accounting at Pace University. After working a number of jobs, he finally began working for the Metropolitan Transit Authority, where he would work for the next 20 years before finally retiring at the age of 70.

Through a mutual friend, Andrew met Deon in 1970 and they wed on May 9th 1971. Their union would last 53 years and produce two children.

Andrew took his last breath in his home in Islandia, Long Island on September 24, 2024, with his loving wife by his side. Andrew is survived by his wife, Deon; his sister, Hilda; his two children, Andrew II and Denise; his stepson, Errol; his three grandchildren, Amber, Andrew III and Ashante; his great-granddaughter, Aura, and his grand-dog, Eddie.”

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
