Obituary

Sharon Barrow was born on June 09, 1980 to her proud parents, Gregory Gibbs and Joy Gibbs from Georgetown, Guyana.

While growing up, Sharon attended various schools that afforded her the opportunity to attend the University of Guyana where she graduated with a degree in Business Management. This level of education introduced Sharon to the workforce in Guyana as a typist at the Guyana National Library where she distinctly acquired relevant skills and experience in the field. Sharon's working abilities promoted her to new roles and places like the National Insurance Scheme in Guyana, where she was known as a person you could depend on. Through working, Sharon made friendships that created lifelong memories.

Sharon met Marlon Barrow at there place of work the Guyana National Library. The friendship quickly moved into dating that resulted in the marriage between Sharon Gibbs and Marlon Barrow. After migrating to the US, Sharon gracefully became a delighted mother through the birth of her daughter Genesis Ariel Barrow. Sharon's love and affection for her family as a mother was no secret. It was noticeable in everything she did. Sharon loved spending quality time with her family, listening to soft music, going to the beach with her family, church and to the movies when she is not working.

Sharon leaves to mourn: one child, Genesis Ariel Barrow; her husband, Marlon Barrow; one sister, Tamara Gibbs; one brother, Earl Gibbs; lots of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends near and far.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
