Ronald Miller Jr., affectionately known as Poppa/Dubie departed his life on September 20, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of warmth and kindness. He walked through life with a gentle strength, touching the lives of everyone he encountered with an unforgettable grace.

Ronald Jr., was born to the late Ronald Sr. and Carol A. Miller on September 26, 1969 in Queens, New York. He was educated through New City Public School System. After graduating high School, he started his career and became Bus Operator for New York City Transit Authority for over 20 years. Ronald began his own family with Tracy Daniels and from that union they welcomed two beautiful children, Derek Miller, son and Brianna Miller, daughter, to whom he had taken immense pride in being a father. He enjoyed watching sports, playing video games, and traveling with his favorite cousin Reggie to Florida to visit his favorite Uncle Dan (Gut) and his Aunt Janet. His passion for collecting trains brought him joy and building a massive collectible collection with his other favorite uncle Leslie (Buster). Ronald took great proud in watching his family achieve their goals in life, especially his granddaughter Dionne he was her biggest cheerleader in all her accomplishments.

Ronald was preceded in life by his Uncle's Vernon Phipps Sr., Micheal Phipps, and John Ginyard. Aunt's Georgia Miller-Ginyard, Odessa Miller and Earline Benjamin-Phipps and Cousin Jerry Phelps.

God Looked Around His Garden

God looked around His garden
and found an empty place.

Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.

He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,

He saw the road was getting rough
and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.
