Obituary

Dorothy M McLean (known as Dottie to everyone) was born in Jersey City, NJ to the late Merrill Jackson McCullough and late Willie Hue McKnight. She was the oldest of 12 children, 6 on the maternal and 6 on the paternal side of the family. Dottie was educated in the Jersey City Public School system, graduated from Lincoln High School Also attended Hudson Community College, graduated with an associate's degree.

Dottie was employed at Good Will Industries in Harrison, NJ until later transferred to Hudson Community Enterprise where she worked for 20+ years until she retired in 2022.

Dorothy was the mother of 5 children, 12 grandchildren, and 14 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Wilson McLean, parents Merrill and Joseph McCullough, sibling Lavella Jackson, Lillie Elizabeth Williams, Adam Mcknight, aunts, and uncles.

Dorothy McLean leaves to cherish her memories: daughters Priscilla Jackson, Lateche Jackson, Tamika (& Darryl Turner), and Felicia Jackson. Tyrone Wright whom she called her son. Her brothers and sister Charles Jackson, Anthony P (& Kayla) Jackson, Marvin Jackson, and Jannette Jackson Couch. Willie Hue Mcknight Jr., Sarah Ann Mcknight, Elbert Mcknight, Mckever Knight, and Ronnie Mcknight.

Aunts Ruth Carol Gaines, Ardrena Jenkins, and Mary Jackson. Best Friends Laverne Felton & Johnnie Garnica, lifelong friend Samuel Lancaster, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Dottie will be missed for quirky sense of humor and firecracker attitude. May her soul find eternal peace

Final Farewell

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me—But Let me Go!*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness, comforting words, and prayers shown during our time of bereavement.
