Obituary

We gather today to honor and celebrate the life of Nyron Witfield John, affectionately known as Filo. Born on November 30, 1959, in Falmouth, St. Paul's, Antigua, Filo lived a life filled with laughter, love, and artistry. He touched the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing him, leaving behind a legacy as radiant as the jewelry he so skillfully crafted.

Filo was more than a beloved son, father, brother, nephew, uncle, and friend—he was a man whose kindness, humor, and generosity shone through in all that he did. As a talented jeweler, he didn't just create beautiful pieces; he infused each one with passion, precision, and soul. His work reflected his dedication, his keen eye for detail, and his deep appreciation for life's beauty.

But jewelry wasn't his only form of art. Filo had a remarkable gift for photography, particularly for capturing the unguarded, candid moments of those around him. If you ever dared to fall asleep in his presence, you might have found yourself the subject of one of his infamous snapshots! His mischievous nature and quick wit made every gathering unforgettable—wherever Filo was, laughter was sure to follow. And if you ever stumbled upon his tablet, you were bound to find a collection of hilarious, unfiltered memories that only he could capture so perfectly.

Beyond his artistic talents, Filo's greatest masterpiece was the love he shared with his family and friends. He was a devoted father to Nicole, Zino, Zena, Johnathan, Zeneal, and Benjamin, and a cherished grandfather to Daniel, Azyra, Genesis, Amarih, Zaniyah, Eli, Damir, and the late Zaylin John. He shared a deep and enduring bond with his best friend, Heather. He was the beloved son of Constance Airall and the late Samuel John, and a caring brother to Valerie John-Horsford and Janis John. His extended family, his nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and countless friends—will forever hold his memory close.

Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit, laughter, and incredible legacy will live on. We will remember him in the sparkle of a handcrafted jewel, in the spontaneous joy of a shared joke, and in the timeless photos that capture his essence.

Filo, your presence was a gift, and your love was a treasure.

Rest in peace

You will always be in our hearts.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
