OBITUARY

James Edward Walker was born on July 12, 1950 to Charles and Gertude Walker at Bellevue Hospital in New York City. As a child, James was very close to his grandmother and spent many summers travelling back and forth to the island of St. Kitts to visit our great grandparents.

James was raised in Harlem and the Bronx. He attended PS 23, PS 146, Paul Lawrence Dunbar Junior High School and Samuel Gompers High School. After his education, he served in the military as a Marine Corpsman.

Upon exiting the military, he was employed as a NYC Transit worker, a bartender, security officer and subsequently attended Bronx Community College and secured Certification for Renovation Mechanic. He then went to work at Housing Preservation and Development for the City of New York before finally becoming self-employed doing what he enjoyed the most, renovation until his health took a turn for the worse. In spite of James' illness, he continued to be true to himself.

He is preceded in death by his mother, father, sister, brother and (2) nieces. He leaves to cherish his memory, Rosa Glover and their son, Shane Walker.

He is survived by his siblings, Charles, Earl, Bernice, Eileen, Mary and Yvette, and a host of nephews, nieces and an untold number of family and friends.

HE WILL BE TRULY MISSED BY SO MANY.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
