Obituary

Louis Allen, affectionately known as "Snooky" "Supreme" or "Sue" by family members and friends, was born on September 26, 1966, in Paterson, NJ. He was the son of Minnie Allen and Louis Ellerbee.

Louis attended the Paterson Public School System and was a proud graduate of Eastside High School. He excelled in his studies and will be remembered for his flawless handwriting. It was something to marvel at being perfect in every way, and a reflection of the care and precision he put into the world around him.

Louis will be remembered for displaying his love for life into everything he did. He was a man full of laughter, being known for his incredible sense of humor, and having the capability to brighten any room he entered with his amazing personality. He had a gift for making people smile. His love for family was immeasurable, and his memory will live on through them all. While we mourn his loss, we also celebrate the love, laughter, and light that Snooky brought into everyone's lives.

On Monday, March 10, 2025, at the age of 58, Louis "Snooky" Allen departed this life, leaving those who loved him too soon. His presence will be deeply missed by everyone who knew him.

He was preceded in death by paternal grandparents; Boo Lighty, Calparta Davis, and Charlie Byrd, maternal grandmother; Clara Gaskin, nephew; Jermal D. Fulmore, uncles; Randolph Gaskin, James Lighty, and Woodrow Lighty, aunt; Rosemary LaRose (Lighty) cousins; Lokeisha McNair, and Solomon Gaskin, and his longtime companion; Lawanda Adams.

Snooky leaves precious memories to his grandmother; Leila Lighty, mother; Minnie Allen, father; Louis Ellerbee, two beloved children; Ali Townsend, and Quashona Allen, grandchildren; Izhir Allen, Shajhir Allen, Zhanay Spears, and Ah'Niyla Townsend, sisters; LaVern Allen, Qasheem McWhite, and Savannah Hanna (Darrell), brothers; Lamont Adams, Raheem McWhite, Silvester (Melissa) Fulmore, and Anthony Benjamin, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Recessional

In Loving Memory Though your time with us was fleeting, And your voice now softly still, Your love remains unyielding, In our hearts, it lingers still. The light you shone upon our days, Will never dim or fade, A beacon bright in darkest times, A love that never swayed.

*Though we part in sorrow's shadow, Your spirit soars above,
A whisper in the gentle breeze, A song of endless love. We'll cherish
all the memories, The laughter and the grace, Until the day we meet again, In a brighter,
better place.*

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement.

May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
