CORA B. FULCHER'S STORY

Cora Fulcher was born in Waynesboro, Georgia to the late Eloise and Otis Fulcher. Over 60 years ago, she moved to New York and has lived here ever since.

Cora was a faithful and devoted member of New Covenant Church. She was referred to as the Mother of the Church. Throughout her life she formed many friendships. She was loved and respected by everyone she met. Cora was very family oriented and kept the family together through her prayers and love.

Cora B. Fulcher departed this life on March 31, 2025. She was the oldest child of Otis and Eloise Fulcher. She's preceded in death by: Betty, Mary Sue, Idena, Ernestine and Leroy.

Cora is survived by: one aunt, Bernice Johnson; devoted nieces, Anita Swinton, Damica Bennett and Kristen Clay; a devoted cousin, Clementine Bush; and a host of great nieces, nephews and cousins.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgement

Damica Bennett and Clementine Bush extend our most sincere gratitude to everyone for your various acts of kindness during Cora's illness and the loving sympathy you have displayed, in particular her aides Helen and Alesha and the whole hospice team. We thank you all.
