Obituary

“To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die” (Ecc. 3:1-2a KJV).

Born on July 29, 1963, in Sydenham Hospital in Manhattan, New York, to the late Nadine Bond Sookoo, God peacefully called our beloved Glenn Louis Bond “Slick”, home Friday, April 11, 2025, to be with Him.

In his earthly sojourn, Glenn was lovingly known as “Slick”. He gave his life to the Lord at a young age and was a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Herndon, Virginia. He attended Roberto Clemente Public School and graduated from Parkeast High School in New York City, New York.

Possessing very strong work ethics, Slick held several jobs during his lifetime, which included Virginia Department of Transportation (Toll Road), Lowe’s, and Kohl’s in Virginia. A committed and hard worker, he held various managerial positions at several supermarkets in Manhattan, NY and was also employed with the New York City Department of Sanitation in New York, NY, for 20 years, until retiring in 2003.

Slick was a dedicated family man and loved spending time with his family, going to the beach, scuba diving, and playing videos in the arcade rooms. He also had a great love for music and was known as “DJ Slicky D”. He was very knowledgeable about biblical stories and enjoyed watching old TV shows. His favorite artist were Tupac, Anita Baker, and Earth, Wind and Fire. (Slick loved his black mustang and would shine it until you could not shine it anymore. LOL)

Knowing God’s love, Slick was a kind, loving, and generous man, who will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He is preceded in death by: two siblings, Martin “Marty” Bond (brother) and Nadine Bond (sister). He will be cherished by: his wife, Linda Reid-Bond, Herndon, Virginia; his children, Glenda, Glenn Bond, Jr., Lamont Bond, and Aaron Bond; new granddaughter, Sophia Jane; three brothers, Michael (Lil Mike) Sookoo (Natasha), Randy Sookoo, and Leslie “Les” Sookoo (Treadell); sisters-in-law, Crystal Bond, Diane Reid, and Denise Hagler (James); special nieces, Zhane Booker, Shante Booker, and Aaliyah Lingard; along with a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, whom he loved. Also cherishing his memories are his best friend, Ephraim “Joe”, and special friends, Nelly, Quintin, and Stan “the Man”.
